

Basic Past Tense

Answer Key

We add ed to the end of regular verbs to show that something happened in the past.

Directions: Read the first sentence, and circle the verbs. Rewrite the verb from the word bank into the second sentence to show that the action happened in the past.

Example: The children play at recess time.

Yesterday, the children played at recess time.

Word Bank

ask

chase

depend

hand

walk

1. We depend on the car to get from home to school.

We depended on the car to get from home to school, but now we ride the bus to school.

2. Hand your homework in," said the teacher to her students.

The students handed in their homework to the teacher.

3. I chase the ball across the field.

I chased the ball across the field.

4. Did you ask to go to the park?

Yes, I asked to go to the park.

5. Let's walk around the lake.

We walked around the lake.

