

ANSWER SHEET*The Four Types of Sentences

There are four types of sentences: declarative, imperative, exclamatory, and interrogative.

- Declarative sentences: The most common type of sentence. Also known as a telling sentence or a statement. Usually end with a period (.).
Examples:       The sky is blue.       My cat Tigger is sweet and cuddly.
- Imperative sentences: A command or a request. Used to tell someone to do something. Could end with a period (.) or an exclamation mark (!).
Examples:       Clean your room!       Please sit down.
- Exclamatory sentences: Used to say something with lots of emotion, such as excitement, surprise, pain, or anger. Usually end with an exclamation mark (!).
Examples:       I love chocolate!       I can't believe he did that!
- Interrogative sentences: Used to ask a question or get information. Always end with a question mark (?).
Examples:       Where are my keys?       What is your address?

Part 1: Read each sentence and write the type of sentence it is ("D" for declarative, "Im" for imperative, "E" for exclamatory, and "In" for interrogative).

- Oranges are my favorite fruit.         D
- Why did you go there?         In
- Stop the bus!         Im
- Ouch, that hurts!         E
- Line up right away.         Im
- Mateo wants to play soccer.         D
- How are you going to build it?         In
- I won the game!         E

Part 2: Add punctuation to make these sentences correct. Then, name the type of sentence using the letters in the previous part.

- Who wants to get ice cream?         In
- You can do it, Hani!         E
- Take off your shoes, please.         Im
- I would like to visit you.         D
- This is the best pie I've ever had!         E
- Where is she going?         In
- Lyla looked at her mom.         D
- How will you get there?         In

Part 3: Write an example of each type of sentence.       SAMPLE ANSWERS
