

Action Verbs

An action verb is a word that shows action; it tells what someone or something is doing.

Circle the action verb in each sentence.

Walter walked to the store.

He searched for the sports aisle.

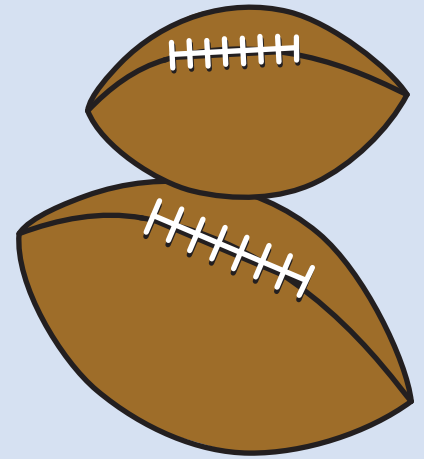

Sue saw him there.

She walked over to him.

They chatted for a while.

Then, Walter looked at his watch.

He shouted goodbye.

Finish this story using action verbs.

Walter to the bus.

He his friends.

They to him.

The boys off the bus at the park.

They ball for the rest of the afternoon.