

Verbs in Agreement

S is sometimes added to a verb when one person or thing is doing the action. If more than one person or thing is doing the action, no S is added to the verb.

Examples: The kid throws the baseball.
The kids shake hands.

Directions: Circle the correct word that completes the sentence.

- The kids _____ into the dugout. walks walk
- The coach _____ us instructions. gives give
- Parents _____ in the bleachers. sit sits
- Jayla _____ the baseball. throws throw
- My sister _____ to watch the game. like likes
- My water bottle _____ on the grass. fall falls
- Tim _____ the baseball. hits hit
- Coach Marisol _____ when Gina hits a homerun. cheer cheers
- We all _____ hands when the game is over. shakes shake
- My little brother _____ pizza with the team. eat eats