Wacky Alliteration

Alliteration is a stylistic device writers use by repeating the beginning consonant sound in a group of closely connected words.

Example: Peter picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Read the following sentences. Underline the alliteration.

1. Polly picked a present out for her friend.
2. I like to slide in the silvery sunlight.
3. There is a furry flower in the forest.
4. Look at that willful white whale over there!
5. That dog is dancing in the dunes.

Read each sentence. Decide if the sentence contains alliteration.
Write "Yes" or "No" on the line.

1. There is a lamb that likes to lick lily pads. Yes
2. Wanda likes to ride the Ferris wheel. No
3. Fran and Fred are fast friends. Yes
4. Mary went to the store for some fruit. No
5. Phil and Mark like to play games after school. No
