

THE NATION'S CAPITAL Washington, D.C.

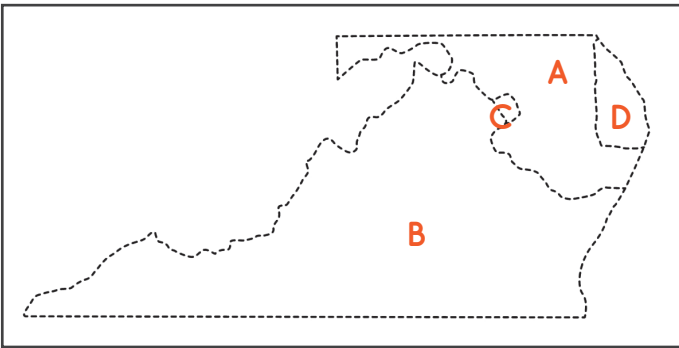

Name _____

Date _____

Get to know a little about the the capital of the United States. Answer Key

The Lincoln Memorial is located in the capital of the United States, known as the District of Columbia or Washington, D.C. This monument has also been featured on the back of the penny (one cent).

Label the Map

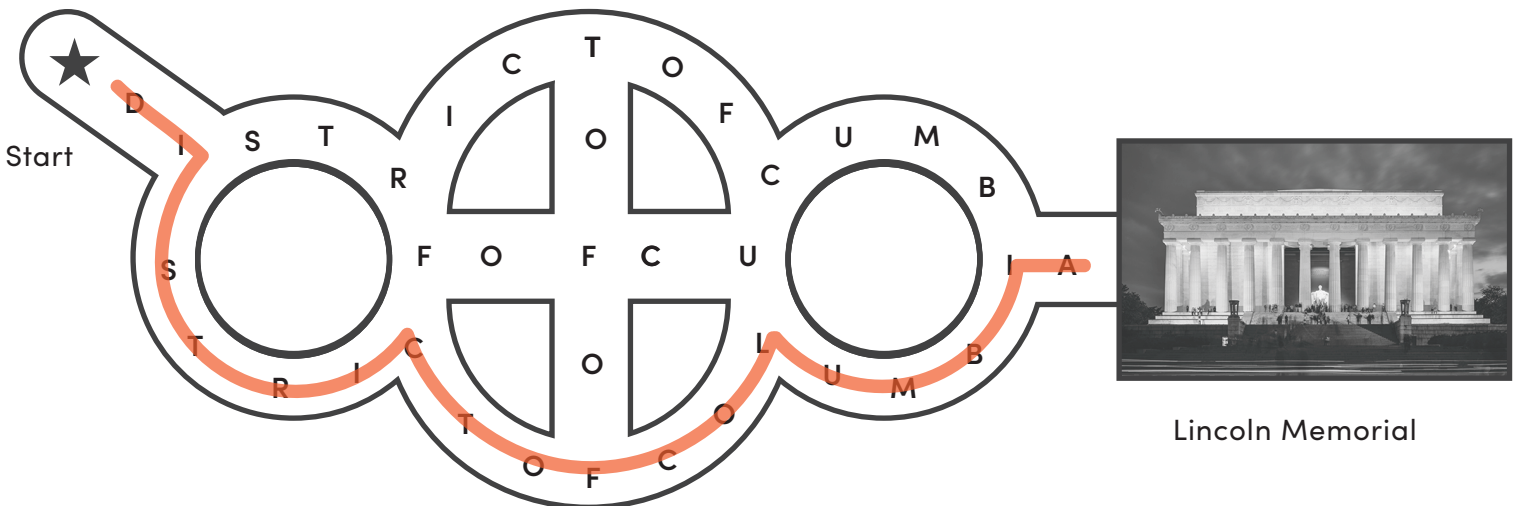

Trace the outline of the map. Then label each section with the corresponding letter:

- A Maryland
- B Virginia
- C Washington, D.C.
- D Delaware

On a map, Washington, D.C. looks like it could be located in Maryland, but the nation's capital isn't part of any state. Early on in U.S. history, it was thought that if the capital were to be placed in one of the states, it would give that state an unfair political advantage.

Complete the Maze

Trace the outline of the map! Hint: Where is the Lincoln Memorial located?

Lincoln Memorial