

Word Patterns in Sentences Level 1

Words with prefixes and suffixes follow patterns. Noticing and understanding these patterns can help you figure out their meanings.

Example: A pointless story doesn't have a point.
An endless story doesn't have an end.

Directions: Complete each sentence to match the model.

1. A joyful person is full of joy.
A beautiful person is full of                   beauty                  .
2. When you write a sentence again, you rewrite.
When you                   read                   a sentence again, you reread.
3. A baker is a person who bakes.
An explorer is a person who                   explores                  .
4. You can depend on a friend who is dependable.
You can enjoy a friend who is                   enjoyable                  .
5. A person who creates art is an artist.
A person who writes a                   novel                   is a novelist.
6. If you do not like a game, you dislike it.
If you do not continue a game, you                   discontinue                   it.
7. An unexpected gift is not expected.
An unwrapped gift is not                   wrapped                  .
8. Food that is baked before is prebaked.
Food that is ordered before is                   preordered                  .