Word Patterns in Sentences Level 2

> Words with prefixes and suffixes follow patterns. Noticing and understanding these patterns can help you figure out their meanings.
>
> Example: During an election, voters elect leaders.
> During an inspection, mechanics inspect vehicles.

Directions: Complete each sentence to match the model.

1. A bike with three wheels is a tricycle.

   A shape with three angles is a _____triangle_____.

2. On a foggy day, there is a lot of fog.

   In soapy water, there is a lot of _____soap_____.

3. Someone who pitches the baseball is a pitcher.

   Someone who takes photographs is a _____photographer_____.

4. A statement that is spoken in a clear way is spoken clearly.

   A statement that is spoken in a sudden way is spoken _____suddenly_____.

5. Animals that live underwater live beneath the water.

   Animals that live underground live beneath the _____ground_____.

6. A person who is overconfident has extra confidence.

   A game that is in overtime has extra _____time_____.

7. A development is something that has been developed.

   A measurement is something that has been _____measured_____.

8. Darkness describes the state of being dark.

   Happiness describes the state of being _____happy_____.