

Seven Wonders of the World

Great Pyramid of Giza

TGAER YMIPARD FO IGAZ

Located in Egypt, it served as a tomb for the 4th dynasty Egyptian Pharaoh Khufu.

Temple of Artemis

MPLEET FO SATMREI

Built for the goddess of fertility, this massive structure is considered to be one of the largest temples constructed during the ancient times.

Hanging Gardens of Babylon

GGIHANAN DNEAGRS FO YBLOABN

King Nebuchadnezzar built this for his wife to have a lovely, private, terraced garden to enjoy.

Mausoleum at Halicarnassus

EMALMSOUU TA SSLIRHSCAAUAN

This world wonder serves as the burial tomb for King Mausolus.

Lighthouse of Alexandria

GLHITOUHES FO XAELIRDAAN

Built in the Island of Pharos around 290 BC, it was a working lighthouse that helped ships find their way safely into the harbor.

Colossus of Rhodes

LOSCSOSU FO EDSHRO

As a symbol of their victory, the city of Rhodes celebrated by making a statue of the Greek Titan Helios.

Statue of Zeus at Olympia

UESTTA FO EZSU TA PYLMAIO

This temple was built in honor of the king of all ancient Greek gods.