

FILL IN THE ZOMBIE STORY

Have another person help you come up with adjectives, nouns, verbs, and other words to finish this zombie story. For each blank space, ask your partner to give you a word that matches what's listed below each spot.

Example: "Give me a noun!" — "Pickup truck!"

Student answers will vary.

It was a	a da (adjed	rk 	and stormy night.The			wind was roaring (noun) outside	Alejar	ndro 's r	oom as she	he watched	The Lion	n King e title)	and ate	popcorn (a type of food,	. Sudde	nly, the light	s went out!	Alejan (name	dro #1)	was n	(emotion)	as shether	got up from	the	couch (noun)	to see v	vhat had happen	ed.Then, ther	re was a	firm (adjective)	knocl	c on the	door (noun)	!
A	lejandro (name #1)	tent	catively adverb)	opened t	ne door. She (	he) s	ighed st tense verb) with re	lief; it was jus	t her his frien	d(na	Ella Ime #2)	But as	Alejand	ro threw open th	ne door, she ( f	scree (past ter	eched nse verb)	in terror	Ella (name #2) wa	as covered in eggs (noun)	, and her/hi	s	noun)	_ was all ripp	ed to shree	ds.
	Ella (name #2)	" A	lejandro (name #1)	stamm	ered,"Why is	s your face	all yellow (color)	?"
"MREH	ihggrrng!	!" she /he moa	ned in reply	, and began	runni (verb ending	ng in -ing)	nto the house very quickly (adverb)	·
"Zomb	ie!" cried	Alejandro	, and s	sherhe	sprinted (past tense verb)	down	the hall like a mad	hog (living creatur	. She.(F	ne grabbed a	h	at oun)	for protect	ion and turned to face the	e zombie at tl	he door. But to	o her his	amazem (noun - emo	ent , the	zombie wa	s laughing! Then shelhe	saw	seven (number)	_ other frien	nds huddled	outside laugh	ning	merrily . (adverb)
	Angrily (emotion)	,Ale	jandro me #1)	_ slammed	the	door (noun)	It was all a joke
After h	er his	heart (body part)	stopped	beating so f	ast, she (he) be	gan to	laugh (verb)
What a	a crazy	day (noun)	!				. ,

