

ACCORDION

FUN FACTS

The accordion was invented in Germany in 1822. This free reed instrument plays music when the player compresses or expands the instrument by pulling the two panels apart or pushing them together. Pressing the keys and buttons produces different sounds and melodies.

