

Using Commas

Add commas where the sentences need them.

1. I got candy bars lollypops gummy worms and jelly beans for Halloween.
2. The rumors say that there are ghost vampires monsters and bats inside the haunted house.
3. All my costume needs is fake blood a cape and some fangs.
4. We will go to Hyde Street Main Avenue Palm Way and Park Boulevard to trick or treat this Halloween.
5. The cold foggy spooky graveyard was pitch black.
6. First I like to hollow out the pumpkin then carve the eyes out after that the mouth and finally put the candle inside.
7. "Happy Halloween!" yelled the monster.

