Adverbs
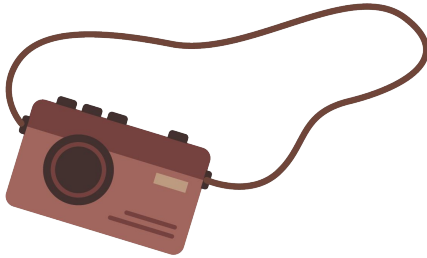

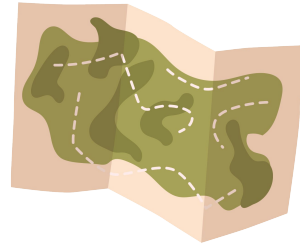

An adverb is a word that tells you more about a verb. It tells you how, when, or where.

Some adverbs tell you how. These usually end in -ly.

He quickly took the photo.

We looked at the map together.

Some adverbs tell you when.

The plane leaves now.

I packed my bags yesterday.

Some adverbs tell you where.

Wear your hat outside.

She looked ahead.