

All About Adverbs: To What Extent

An adverb is a word that modifies words other than nouns. Some adverbs describe to what degree something happens.

Directions: Read the sentences. Use the word bank to complete each sentence. Some words will be used more than once.

1. The cowboy _____ won the rodeo competition.
2. The train _____ left 15 minutes ago.
3. I emptied my locker _____ .
4. The runner _____ made it to the finish line.
5. Playing with a cobra is _____ dangerous.
6. We arrived at the theater _____ late due to the long ticket line.
7. The ticket price is _____ a good deal.
8. Katie is _____ good at chemistry.

Word Bank

almost just completely quite incredibly very barely extremely

