

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Words have families just like people do. They play different roles in their families, too. Look at the words in each group. One is a noun, one is a verb, and one is an adjective. Can you tell which family member fits each part of speech?

