

Altostratus Clouds

are mid-level clouds forming between 6,000 and 20,000 feet. Altostratus clouds appear in rows or scattered cloudlets. They can signal the arrival of a thunderstorm.

