Balancing a Checkbook

Dori needs to keep better track of her finances. To help her balance her checkbook, start with the beginning balance of $986.25 in the top right of the chart below. Next, fill in the chart for the month of October from the transactions listed. Keep a running balance of the account total by adding or subtracting each transaction in the final column.

Remember, any money going out of the account is a Payment/Debit, and any money coming into the account is a Deposit/Credit.
