

Name
Date

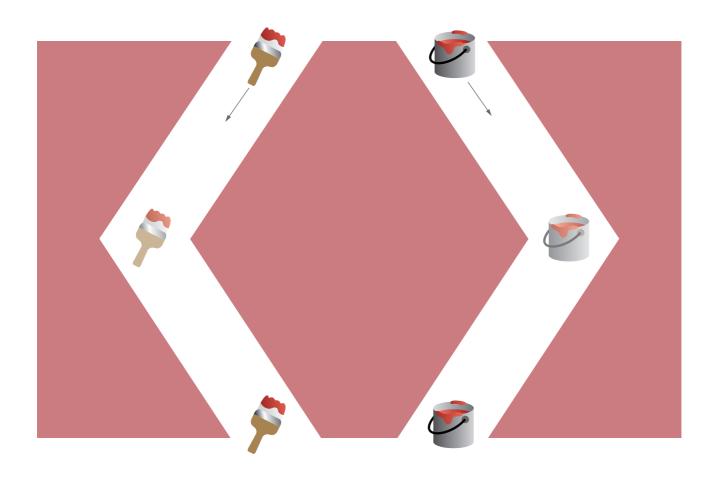

To parents This exercise teaches your child to draw jagged lines. This is often very difficult for children. To make this activity easier, allow your child to draw a straight line to the middle brush, then continue drawing to the brush at the bottom.

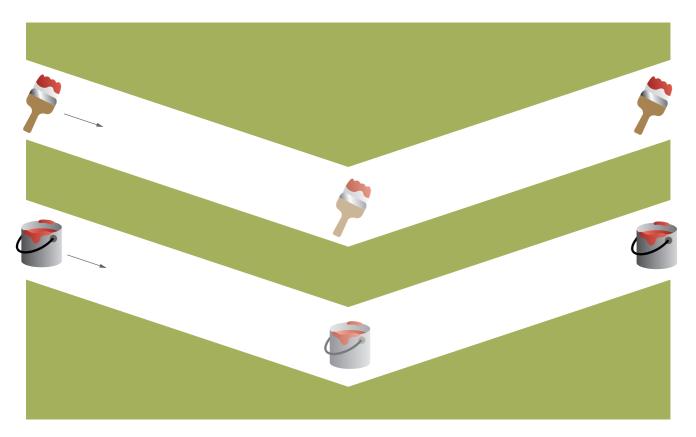

■Draw a line from one brush ($\stackrel{\frown}{\wp}$) to the matching brush ($\stackrel{\frown}{\wp}$).

Encourage your child to draw a jagged line from start to finish in one stroke. If your child needs help, allow your child to draw a straight line to the middle picture, then continue drawing to the end of the picture.

■ Draw a line from one picture to the matching picture.

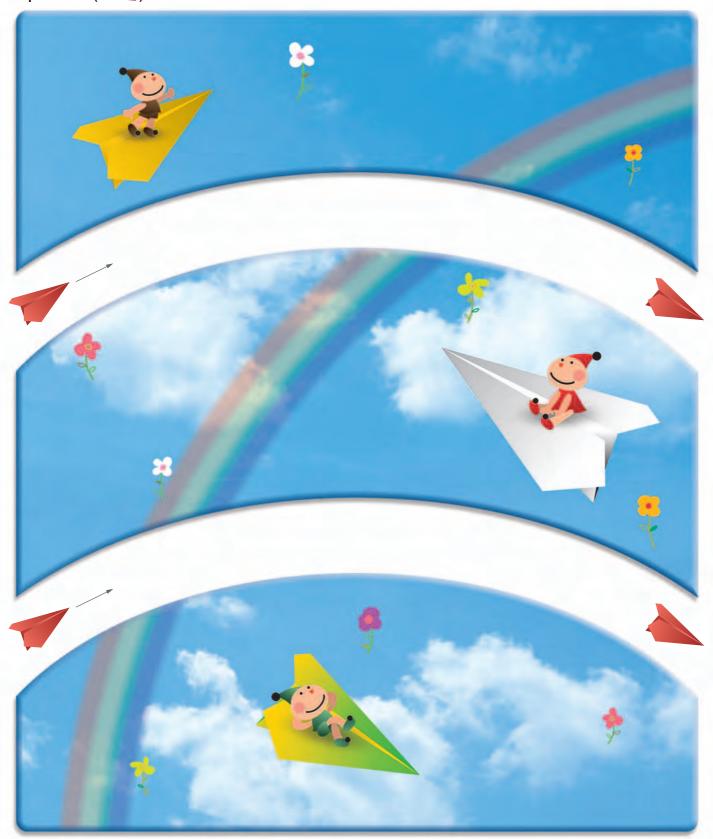

Name
Date

To parents This exercise teaches your child to draw curved lines. Have your child move the pencil slowly along the curved path.

■Draw a line from one paper plane () to the matching paper plane ().

Encourage your child to draw curved lines, showing the path of the paper planes.

■ Draw a line from one picture to the matching picture.

