

Beginning, Middle, and End Worksheet

Every story has a beginning, middle and end! In this worksheet, you will use your imagination to create a beginning, middle and ending sentence to expand the one-sentence prompts into more elaborate stories.

Example:

description: Sammy the dog got out of the backyard.

beginning, middle, and end: "Sammy dug a hole under the backyard fence, and escaped into the neighborhood. He went from house to house looking for something to do. After two hours riding around the neighborhood in my father's car, we found Sammy a mile away in a church parking lot!"

Example:

Beginning, Middle, and End Worksheet II

Now that you've created some stories with a beginning, middle and end, it's time to elaborate even more. Choose one of your 3-sentence stories. Expand the beginning, middle and ending sentences into paragraphs. To help you find ways to elaborate, try asking questions like: How? Why? What was the character thinking?

Example: On the previous worksheet the student wrote: "Sammy dug a hole under the backyard fence, and escaped into the neighborhood. He went from house to house looking for something to do. We looked for a long time and then found Sammy a mile away in a church parking lot."

Here are some ideas for how to expand each of the sentences into separate paragraphs...

Beginning: How long did it take Sammy to dig the hole? How did he dig it?

Middle: What did Sammy want to do? What did he find? Did he do anything?

End: Why did he go to the church parking lot? Was he on his way somewhere?
