Beginning, Middle, and End Worksheet II

Now that you've created some stories with a beginning, middle and end, it's time to elaborate even more. Choose one of your 3-sentence stories. Expand the beginning, middle and ending sentences into paragraphs. To help you find ways to elaborate, try asking questions like: How? Why? What was the character thinking?

(C)	Example:	On the previous worksheet the student wrote: "Sammy dug a hole under the backyard fence, and escaped into the neighborhood. He went from house to house looking for something to do. We looked for a long time and then found Sammy a mile away in a church parking lot."

Here are some ideas for how to expand each of the sentences into separate paragraphs...

Beginning: How long did it take Sammy to dig the hole? How did he dig it?

Middle: What did Sammy want to do? What did he find? Did he do anything?

End: Why did he go to the church parking lot? Was he on his way somewhere?
