

Name: _____

Date: _____

Build an Inference

An inference is a conclusion you draw based on your own reasoning and evidence found in a reading passage. It is not something that is stated in the text. Use this chart to record the evidence and reasoning you used to support your inference.

What I know from the text is...

What I know in my brain is...

I came to the conclusion that...