

Camping Homophones

Name: _____

Date: _____

Laura wrote a personal narrative about her family's summer camping trip, but she mixed up the homophones.

Directions: Read through her story and write the correct form of each homophone on the lines provided. Remember: A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word, but it is spelled differently and has a different meaning, like here and hear.

Example: I thought I new KNEW everything about nature, but I was surprised when I stepped in a patch of poison oak!

In June, I went camping with my family. We had two _____ drive for two hours threw _____ the mountains to get to our sight _____ at the campground.
When we finally arrived, we set up are _____ tents and then started exploring. My brother found six pinecones, but I only found won _____. When it was time for dinner, we cooked hot dogs over the fire and roasted marshmallows to _____. Then, we told ghost stories while we sat buy _____ the fire. My dad told a story about a giant man-eating bare _____. I was so scared! I thought I herd _____ growling in the woulds _____, but my mom said it was just my stomach. That night, I couldn't sleep at all, even though my caught _____ was comfortable. In the morning, the whether _____ was cold and windy, so we decided to pack up and drive home.
Luckily, we got home before it started to reign _____!