

Capitalization Rules: Proper Nouns

The word I, names of people and pets, and the first word in a sentence are always capitalized.

I have a pet pig. His name is Peter.

1. Circle each word that should begin with a capital letter.

peter was born on a small farm. his best friend was also his owner, annie. one day peter thought, "i want to learn to read and write." peter asked annie for help. she was excited to help peter. annie brought peter to school every day. "i love school," thought peter. peter kept studying hard. he became the smartest pig in school. peter became the world's first pig doctor.

2. Write a sentence about an animal. Remember to use correct capitalization, and be sure to give your animal a name.

