

Sentence Breakdown: The Cat Naps

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought.

Good sentences:

- Begin with a capital letter.
- Have a noun and a verb.
- End with punctuation, like a period.

Example:

The cat naps.

Circle the noun.

Underline the verb.

Draw a box around the capital letter at the beginning of the sentence.

Draw a triangle around the period that ends the sentence.

Now you try!

The cat purrs.

Circle the noun. Underline the verb. Draw a box around the capital letter at the beginning of the sentence. Draw a triangle around the period that ends the sentence.

Write the sentence on the line.

The cat plays.

Circle the noun. Underline the verb. Draw a box around the capital letter at the beginning of the sentence. Draw a triangle around the period that ends the sentence.

Write the sentence on the line.
