

Catherine De Medici

Born in Florence, Italy in 1519, Catherine de Medici was a very smart woman. She was a great patron of the arts and helped the Renaissance flourish. If you color in and pick a hairdo, she could take a walk in the streets of Florence.

