

CHRYSANTHEMUMS

Chrysanthemums come from the daisy family. These flowers come in a huge variety of colors and sizes. They can range from single daisy-like petals to large, rounded or shaggy heads.

The chrysanthemum is said to symbolize cheerfulness, friendship, peace, loveliness, and wealth.

Chrysanthemum flowers are used to make a sweet drink known as chrysanthemum tea. It is used more commonly in Asia. It is said to cure certain illnesses such as the flu and headaches.
