

42,500 ft.

Cirrus

Cirrocumulus

Cirrostratus

Cumulonimbus

High Clouds

20,000 ft.

Altostratus

Altostratus

Middle Clouds

6,500 ft.

Stratocumulus

Cumulus

Low Clouds

Stratus

Types of Clouds

Clouds are made up of very light water droplets or ice crystals that can float in the air. When warm air rises, swells and cools, clouds are formed. Cut out the middle square on the dotted lines. Which clouds can you find?