

This is Annie Oakley. She was an American sharpshooter and exhibition shooter, and one of the country's first superstars. Using a .22 caliber rifle, Oakley could split a playing card edge-on and still put five or six more holes in it before it touched the ground...from 90 feet away!

