

This is Goldilocks. She's a very curious little girl. Her curiosity lead her into the home of a bear family after smelling some delicious porridge coming from their house. She tried three different bowls of porridge, sat in three different chairs, and after trying three beds, she accidentally fell asleep in one of them!

