

This is Heidi. She lives on a mountain with her grandfather and young friend Peter. Her grandfather is a grumpy man who lives far away from town, but Heidi is very energetic and cheerful, and he learns to love her. When Heidi gets sick, her grandfather shows his love by going into town for the first time in years to find help for her. With some fresh air and the help of her family and friends, Heidi gets better.

