

Netherlands
Capital : Amsterdam

Amsterdam

Nicknamed “Venice of the North” for extensive canals at the city’s center, the waterways were planned and built in the 17th century. There are more than a hundred kilometers of canals and over one thousand bridges in the city.