

Greece

Capital : Athens

Santorini

Volcanic eruptions broke up a single big island and made this ring of islands. The main island of the Santorini archipelago is officially called Thira; known for its sweeping cliffs, white buildings and artifacts from civilizations that lived there thousands of years ago.