Name: _____ Date: _____

Comparing and Contrasting
with Sentence Frames

Good readers compare and contrast key points and details between two texts. They look for ways things are alike and different.

- Compare is to determine how one thing is like another thing.
  - ° Key Words: like, alike, both, similar

- Contrast is to determine how one thing is different from another thing.
  - ° Key Words: different, however, differences, but

Directions: Look at the two images and determine how they are similar and different. Then complete the sentence frames.

The City

The Farm

1. _____ and _____ are alike because they both _____.

2. _____ and _____ are different because they _____.

3. The two places are the same in that _____

_____, but they differ in that _____

_____.

Comparing and Contrasting
with Sentence Frames

Good readers compare and contrast key points and details between two texts. They look for ways things are alike and different.

- Compare is to determine how one thing is like another thing.
  - ° Key Words: like, alike, both, similar

- Contrast is to determine how one thing is different from another thing.
  - ° Key Words: different, however, differences, but

Directions: Look at the two images and determine how they are similar and different. Then complete the sentence frames.

The Fish

The Cat

1. _____ and _____ are alike because they

both _____.

2. _____ and _____ are different because

they _____.

3. The two animals are the same in that _____

_____, but they differ in that _____

_____.