

Comparing Money Amounts

Fill in each circle below with one of the following symbols:

> Greater Than      < Less Than      = Equal

#2

Two boxes of money are shown. The left box contains two one-dollar bills and five quarters. The right box contains three quarters and two one-dollar bills. A large empty circle is positioned between the two boxes for comparison.

Two boxes of money are shown. The left box contains two one-dollar bills and three quarters. The right box contains one one-dollar bill, one quarter, and two one-dollar bills. A large empty circle is positioned between the two boxes for comparison.

Two boxes of money are shown. The left box contains one five-dollar bill and two quarters. The right box contains one one-dollar bill and one five-dollar bill. A large empty circle is positioned between the two boxes for comparison.

Two boxes of money are shown. The left box contains four quarters and two one-dollar bills. The right box contains two one-dollar bills and four quarters. A large empty circle is positioned between the two boxes for comparison.

Two boxes of money are shown. The left box contains one ten-dollar bill, two quarters, and five pennies. The right box contains one five-dollar bill, one quarter, two dimes, and one five-dollar bill. A large empty circle is positioned between the two boxes for comparison.