

A Farm is a Fine Place to Live

This farm is full of life! Living things must have water, food, and oxygen. That's the air we breathe. Living things can reproduce, grow, and often they can move! Look at the picture. Circle the living things that you see. Write that number on the line.
