

Simple Division: Word Problems

Place numbers in the correct spaces of a division function to solve each word problem.

- 1. Thirty-eight kids are riding the bus. Half are girls.
How many boys are on the bus?

- 2. There are twenty-seven bananas in nine equal bunches. How many pieces are there in a bunch?

- 3. Thirty-five players are in teams of five.
How many teams are there?

- 4. A group of forty students plans to have a pizza party.
One pizza feeds four students. How many pizzas will they need to buy?

- 5. A four-man relay team ran around the track in forty-eight seconds. All ran the same amount of time. How many seconds did each runner run?

- 6. The Jones family is going on a long road trip across several states. They will drive for forty-two hours total. Each day, they will drive six hours. How many days will their trip take?

- 7. Giorgio's Restaurant holds sixty-four people.
Every table in the restaurant is made for four people.
How many tables are in the restaurant?
