

Dominican Republic

The Dominican Republic is the second largest Caribbean nation. The Dominican Republic has year round tropical weather. Baseball is by far the most popular sport in the country. Boxing and basketball also enjoy a relatively high level of popularity. In the Dominican Republic, merengue is both the national dance and music. Dominican Republic cuisine is predominantly made up of a combination of Spanish, indigenous Taíno, and African influences. The arepa is a very popular street food in the Dominican Republic. The pre-Columbian people that inhabited modern day Dominican Republic were called Taínos. The Taínos' largest canoes could hold about 150 people.

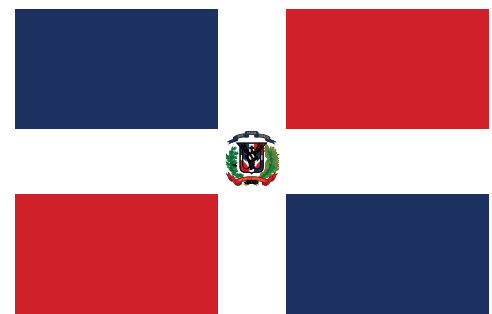

traditional dress

What is the Dominican Republic's favorite sport?

What is the weather like in the Dominican Republic?

How many people can the Taínos' canoes hold?

What is the country's national music?

Dominican Republic flag

What influences are in the Dominican Republics' food?