Draw What Happened

Listen to the story. Use the boxes below to draw what happened in the story.

Once there was a dog named Alice. She was a happy dog and loved to play with her ball. One day Alice was playing with her ball and it rolled onto the street. She was worried because she wasn't supposed to go onto the street alone. Just then, her friend Ben came by and rescued the ball! Alice was so happy that she played ball with Ben for the rest of the afternoon.
