HOMOPHONES

Homophones are words that sound alike but are spelled differently and mean different things. It's easy to see a homophone when they are written down because they are spelled differently. When we hear homophones, we need to pay attention to what is being said so we can understand the homophone's meaning.

Read the sentences below. Draw a picture of each underlined homophone.

1. John read the book yesterday.

2. Allie ate the red apple.

3. The ant climbed up the tree.

2. Lunch with Aunt Nancy was great.

1. I could see over the hill.

2. The otter swam across the sea.
