

EAT YOUR WORDS

Rita is a restaurant reviewer, and her review of Dina's Diner is due tomorrow. Unfortunately, Rita has confused some of her words and used them in the wrong places. Can you find the misused words and put them in the right spots?

Dina's Diner

Rating: ★★★★★

When I sat down to the meal, I was relish because I hadn't eaten all day. I decided to have the Caesar salad followed by the shrimp scampi. I did everything I could not to nibble the salad. It was so delicious that I tried to devour it bit by bit to make it last. Next came the main course. Each tiny ravenous was packed with flavor. I ate it slowly so that I could morsel each bite and enjoy the taste sensation. After dinner, I had a traditional sundae. It was the "cherry" on top of a four-star meal!
