

The God Ptah

Ptah is the patron of all craftsmen, sculptors and architects. The staff he carries represents stability, life and longevity. He is said to have built the sky and the heavens, as well as the boats that souls use in the underworld.