

EUROPE

Fill in the blanks with the correct city provided in the box.

- London
- Munich
- Paris
- Amsterdam
- Rome
- Prague
- Barcelona

Buckingham Palace and Shakespeare’s Globe Theatre are both located in London, the capital of England.

Famous composers such as Mozart and Wagner performed in Munich, Germany.

The Eiffel Tower is located in Paris, France. It was built in 1889 and is approximately 1,000 feet tall.

Amsterdam is a unique city built upon a canal system. Visitors may walk through Anne Frank’s secret annex.

Rome is an ancient Italian city and known for famous sites such as the Vatican, the Colosseum, Trevi Fountain, and more.

Prague is the capital of the Czech Republic. The Charles Bridge is made of stone and crosses the Vltava River.

The Sagrada Familia and much of Barcelona’s ornate and unique architecture was created by Antoni Gaudi.