Evaluate a Text: What Do You Think?

When readers evaluate a text, they decide what they like or dislike about it and why. Good readers support their evaluations with evidence.

Example: In the story Cinderella, I do not like the step-sisters. The girls do not treat Cinderella fairly, and they look for ways to make her life worse.

Directions: Use your fiction text to help you answer the questions below.

1. Which character do you like the best? Why?

2. Which character do you like the least? Why?

3. Which character do you think made the best decisions? Why?

4. Do you think they solved their problem in the best way? Why?

5. What part of the story was the most interesting? Why?
