

Extreme State Facts

Match each extreme fact to its state!

- The 49th state added to the United States also has the highest point in the U.S. (Mt. McKinley is 20,320 feet above sea level.)
- This western state has the largest salt lake in the western hemisphere. (The Great Salt Lake covers an average of 1700 square miles.)
- This southern state has the largest underground cave in the world. (The Mammoth - Flint cave system is 300 miles long.)
- This western state is home to the oldest living things in the world. (General Sherman, a 3500 year old tree, and a stand of 4000 year old bristlecone pines.)
- This midwestern state has the smallest population in the United States. (Monowi has a population of 1.)

