

Family & Friends

Family is a very important group of people. Some family members you live with and some you only see on special occasions.

Friends are another important group of people. Friends are people you enjoy spending time with.

Draw a picture of your family in the first box and a picture of your friends in the second box.

