

Mapping Your Family: North America

Your family may come from lots of different places. Color the places in North America where members of your family were born or where they lived. Remember to include your grandparents and your aunts and uncles!

