Fall Metaphors

Find the path from START to FINISH. Your path should go only through spaces with metaphors. Record each letter you pass to complete the mystery metaphor. Remember, a metaphor is a comparison between two unlike things without using like or as.

START

Abby's plaid scarf was a comforting hug around her chilly neck.	L	The juicy, red apples dangle from the trees like glimmering rubies.	A	We decorated our front porch with millions of pumpkins.	D	The silly squirrels scurried to secure their stash of seeds and acorns.
B		O		A		D
The tractor is a ship gliding through the vast sea of corn.	O	The scarecrow's flannel shirt was patterned like a checkerboard.	L	Autumn is the season of deep colors, crisp days, and long nights.	D	We hiked the winding trails of the park for an eternity.
R		T		E		E
The crispy leaves were firecrackers exploding beneath my footsteps.	I	The kids are spinning cyclones tearing through the activities at the fall festival.	D	The sunflowers were little bursts of sunshine illuminating Main Street.	G	The cozy patchwork quilt is an anchor that keeps me safe and secure.
U		G		Y		E
The thirsty corn stalks stretched towards the sky, begging for rain.	N	The autumn moon hangs in the sky like a shimmering silver coin.	D	The rake grabbed the dead leaves, refusing to let them go.	E	The football players are lions tonight, fiercely dominating the field.
