Halloween Hyperbole

Find the path from START to FINISH. Your path should go only through spaces with hyperboles. Record each letter you pass to complete the mystery hyperbole. Remember, a hyperbole is an extreme exaggeration.

START

It took me two seconds to carve the most perfect jack-o'-lantern.	S	We screamed so loudly that you could hear us on the other side of the world.	C	On Halloween, I consumed so much candy that I turned into a piñata.	R	The spooky spider sneakily dropped down beside me on a silvery thread.
R		A		O		A
My thick superhero mask makes my face sweat like a faucet.	I	The wild witches zoomed past us on their speedy broomsticks.	L	I jumped a mile into the air when I spied the floating, spooky decoration.	T	The leaves danced in the wind, changing direction with each gust.
E		Y		R		O
The hayride was a rollercoaster, cruising over the bumps and hills of the field.	M	The ghouls and ghosts giggled as they gossiped about the goblins.	A	We waited in line outside the haunted house for an eternity.	S	When I bit into my caramel apple, it was as hard as a rock.
C		I		E		N
The bonfire crackled like a witch's brew bubbling in a cauldron.	E	The piles of autumn leaves looked like little mountains in the yard.	I	By the end of trick-or-treating, my candy bag weighed a million pounds.	D	Our display of Halloween lights is so bright that it can be seen from Mars.

FINISH

MYSTERY HYPERBOLE:

I _____ enough candy to last seven lifetimes.
