

Fill in the Blanks with Homophones

Name: _____ Date: _____

Homophones are words that sound alike, but they have different spellings and different meanings.

Example:

I got a new pair of shoes for the school year.

My teacher knew all of our names on the first day.

Circle the correct word that best completes the sentence. Then, write the word on the line.

1. On the _____ before the holiday, the kids are too excited to sleep.
(night / knight)
2. The baseball player skidded into home plate, which made a _____ in his pants.
(whole / hole)
3. It is more challenging to ice skate as a _____ than as an individual. (pair / pear)
4. She _____ a horse through the stables when she visited the farm. (rode / road)
5. A dog has _____ legs while a human only has two. (four / fore)
6. What do you want to _____ when you grow up? (be / bee)
7. There was a _____ in the game because it began to storm. (paws / pause)
8. I _____ an excellent book over the summer that I want to share with you.
(red / read)
9. The slide at the park _____ be very hot if the sun shone on it all day.
(would / wood)
10. A starfish will grow an arm back if _____ lost. (its / it's)