

Finding Equivalent Fractions Using Multiplication and Division

Part 1

Use multiplication to find an equivalent fraction. The first problem has been done for you.

1.	2.	3.
4.	5.	6.

Part 2

Use division to find an equivalent fraction. The first problem has been done for you.

7.	8.	9.
------------------	------------------	------------------

Finding Equivalent Fractions Using Multiplication and Division

Use division to find an equivalent fraction.

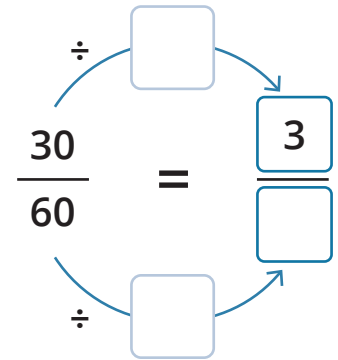

10.

11.

12.

You choose! Multiply or divide to find an equivalent fraction. Be sure to think about which operation would be easier to do based on the given fraction. The first problem has been done for you.

13.

14.

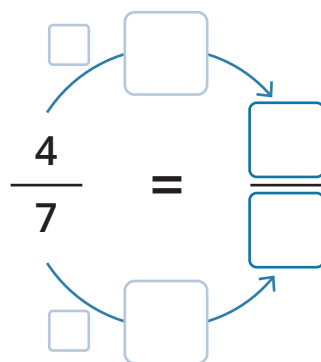

15.

16.

17.

18.

